Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to because as described in the specification numeral 10 is not labeled in fig. 1. As mentioned at pages 7 and 8, lines 29 and 5, respectively, centerline 44 is not shown in any figures. However, centerline 27 is indicated. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

2. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed. The examiner suggests as below.

-- A flowmeter including a reduced thickness conduit wall with reinforcing ribs --.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

Art Unit: 2855

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1, 2, 4, 10-12, 16 and 18-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Beulke (5,343,762).

Buelke teaches a vortex flow meter including a conduit, a region of reduced thickness in a portion of the conduit, a shedding bar (20) and at least one reinforcing rib (26) on the reduced thickness region. A sensor (34) coupled to the region of reduced thickness for sensing motion thereof indicative of the flow. The reinforcing rib extending from edge to edge across the region of reduced thickness.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 3, 5-9, 13-15, 17 and 21-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Beulke.

Beulke shows all the features of the instant invention including a reinforcing rib positioned at the pivot line and a post disposed outside of the conduit and coupled to the rib. Beulke does not teach a second reinforcing rib extending parallel to the flow and positioned on an opposing side of the pivot line. It would have been obvious to a person having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide additional reinforcing structure since providing additional reinforcing ribs in addition to the one provided in the center would enhance addition protection to the device and thus protecting the device from damages. As to the dimensions, the ribs if provided would inherently have a specific height and width.
